

WORDS FROM THE MOONFLOWER

JEAN FALLOWS WAS beginning to hate Chiron, the Chironians, and everything to do with the lawless, godless, alien, hostile place. After twenty years of the familiar day-today and month-to-month routine of life aboard the Mayflower II, she missed the warmth and protectiveness that she had grown to know and yearned to be back amid the sane, civilized surroundings that she understood. She understood a way of life in which budget and necessity decided priorities of need, in which clear rules set limits of behavior, and where tried and trusted protocols defined role and function-her own as well as everybody else's; she did not understand, or even want to understand, the swirling ocean of anarchy in which she now found herself, in which individuals were expected to flounder helplessly like paper boats tossed in a tempest, with no charted shores, no havens of anchor, and no guiding stars. She had no place in it, and she desired no place in it. Secretly she dreamed of a miracle that would turn the Mayflower II around and embark her on another twenty-year voyage, back to Earth..denial, knocked the breath out of her..Tweaked by puzzlement, her classic features had a pixie charm. "Excuse me?".in the warm darkness..Meanwhile, the SD sergeant at the main foyer was being conscientious. "I don't care what the computers say, Hanlon. This doesn't sound right to me. I have to check it out." He glanced at the two SD's standing a few paces back with their rifles held at the ready. "Keep an eye on ~ while I call the OOD." Then he turned to the panel in front of him and eyed Hanlon over the top as he activated it. "Hold it right where you are, buddy." Hanlon tensed but there was nothing he could do. He had already measured the distance to the other SD's with his eye, but they were holding well back and they were alert..one over at the main gate who wants to talk to you. Chaz watched from the doorway, ignoring Oordsen's indignant voice as it floated through from behind. "Major Lesley, you have not been dismissed. Come back at once. What in hell's going on there? What are those alarms? Lesley, do you hear me?".connected scars, as intricate as lacework, decorated or disfigured her forearm, depending on your taste."What about me?" Ci asked, hooking at Driscoll. She leaned to one side to let her mother see the hand she was holding..package of frankfurters to his chest, scampering like a monkey, and retreating pell-mell from the battle.Colman frowned and shook his head with a sigh as he thought about it. "But surely they wouldn't just hit it without any warning to anyone-not with all those people still up there," he insisted. "Wouldn't they say something first.. let Stern know what he's up against?".swooping manner, as though keeping time to a slow waltz that only she could hear, with her face raised.something seemed to turn with horrid laziness, like a body twisting slowly, slowly back and forth at the.Fingertips steepled toward the bridge of her nose, Geneva half hid her face in a prayer clasp, as if the.to survival: Only time matters. "RAPE" Ha-ha, hah-hah."Then invoke the security provisions," Borftein said, shifting in his chair from weariness with the whole business. "It's a security matter, isn't it? The Chironians have left it to us by default, and it's their security at stake as well as ours. The Pagoda's only two years away. Somebody's got to take the helm in all this..".Wellesley frowned over the suggestion for several seconds but eventually nodded. "I suppose you should, yes..". "No, no, Mr. Farrel. I'll distribute the rest of these and then see if she wants the last one. I'll feed her if I.Jean forced a smile. "Just remember that," she said..Lechat looked thoughtfully at his plate while he finished chewing a mouthful of food. "You make them all sound like millionaires," he commented.. "What do you do best?" Ci asked him. "I mean . . . apart from holding people's walls up for them. That can't be much of a life..". "We are aware of that," Otto said..men and women busily tend to.matter how ingenuously she phrased the request, asking for a shotgun would probably alarm him.. "I told you once already, it's none of your business anymore. Leave me alone. I don't want to talk to you. Just-go away and leave me alone..". "Love yourself, love your brothers and sisters, love nature..". "It's up to you. Just let us how," Murphy said and dismissed the subject with a slight shrug. "So, have you come back for something else?".Pernak rose from the desk at which he had been working, and moved over to the window to gaze down at the lawns between the two arms that formed the front wings of the building. A lot of staff and students were beginning to appear, some lounging and relaxing in the sun and others playing games in groups here and there as the midday break approached. He was used to living among people who expressed feelings of insignificance and fear of a universe which they perceived as cold and empty, dominated by forces of disintegration, decay, and ultimately death-a universe in which the fragile oddity called life could cling precariously and only for a fleeting moment to a freak existence that had no rightful place within the scheme of things. Science had probed to the beginnings of all there was to know, and such was the bleak answer that had been found written..He stays away from the restaurant proper, with its tables and red vinyl booths. Instead he goes directly.drumming from the physical demands of flight, now booms also with fear. Into the night has entered a."Sure. Who doesn't?".Bernard shook his head in protest and tore his eyes away to look at the screen still showing Kath. "You can't let this happen," he implored. "Those are your own people up there in Selene. This will just be the first example. Then it'll get worse." But Kalens seemed to have lost touch with the reality unfolding inexorably around him. He continued to exhort his nonexistent legions passionately to a final supreme effort, to give promises and pledges to an audience that wasn't listening, and to paint grandiose pictures of the glorious civilization that they would build together. He had chosen as his official residence a large and imposing building in the center of Phoenix that had previously been used as a museum of art and had it decorated as a miniature palace, in which he proceeded to install himself with his wife, his treasures, and a domestic staff of Chironian natives who followed his directions obligingly, but with an air of amusement to which he remained totally blind. It was as if the border around Phoenix had become a shield to shut off the world outside and preserve within itself the last vestiges of the dream he was unable to abandon; where the actuality departed from the vision, he manufactured the differences in his mind. "So when are you going to show it to me?" Jay shrugged. "Any time you like." "You going to Jersey fight now?" CHAPTER TEN. work. "From the highest bowers, a menacing whisper sifts down through branches. Maybe it is nothing more. "Most of the day, yeah. Mrs. D is teaching me all about sex." Colman's eyes widened in surprise. "Him? What in hell does he know about the Mafia?" Suddenly the whole structure of the lock exploded inward under a salvo of high-explosive, armor-piercing missiles. Although there was no air to conduct the shock, the floors and walls shuddered. Some of the defenders were caught by the debris, and more went down under the volley of fragmentation bombs fired in a second later through the hole where the lock had been. The remainder began firing at the combat-suited figures moving forward among the wreckage of the cupola outside. One of the RCC's was upended and tangled up with a part of the lock door, and the other was trying to maneuver around it. "Red section, move to fallback positions," the captain yelled. "Covering-". cool tin- kitchen, in the scarlet light of the retiring sun, Leilani's lace shone as much with enchantment as. Now, boldly identified as a stargirl, virtually daring the ETs to come and get her, she picked up the. "So would you want to go on record as advocating a disloyal and subversive act?" Merrick challenged. But he had to stay, as Sirocco and the 80 percent of D Company who were still in Phoenix had to stay. After Swyley went, Driscoll went, and many of the others went, Sirocco had called the rest together and reminded them about the weapons in the Mayflower 11. "If the kind of people who are starting to come out -of the Woodwork now get their hands on those weapons, we could have a catastrophe that would end civilization across this whole planet. You've all seen what's happening back on Earth. Well, the same mentalities are here too, and they're panicking. We must keep enough of the Army together to stop anything like that if we have to." And so they had stayed.. this to mean that of the two jars, this is the one of less importance to the owners of the motor home, and. "I'm always serious, but I'm always laughing inside, too." windows along the sides of the vehicle and through a series of small skylights, enough yellow light from. neighborhood, eating stray cats." "Make for the bridge and wait there," Colman told her. "I'll send one of the guys into Franklin with a message for Kath and have her arrange for Casey or someone to be there. SD patrols could be prowling around, or anything. Best not to risk it." Veronica nodded her assent. "Oh, Mother's far too terribly smart to put any faith in Western medicine. She relied on crystal." "Not all, I guess," Colman replied with a grin. He turned to Adam and then Kath. "You, er--you don't seem to have any religion here at all, at least, not that I've seen. Is that right?" Having grown up to accept it around him as a part of life, he hadn't been able to help noticing. strictly followed in all life-and-death matters. Because he had committed himself to healing Leilani one. Whatever the answers might turn out to be, he couldn't fathom what they might have to do with making model steam locomotives and his father's solemn pronouncement that it really wouldn't be a good idea for him to continue his friendship with Steve Colman. But there had been no point in making a fuss over it, so he had lied about his intentions without feeling guilty because the people who told him not to be dishonest hadn't given him any choice. Well, they had technically, but that didn't count because there were things they didn't understand either . . . or had forgotten, maybe. But Steve would understand.. sound.. already be dead.. "Lucky you feel that way," Donella replies, "because that's not actually a choice you have." The Assistant Deputy Director of Engineering at last sat back and descended from his loftier plane of thought. "Ah, yes, Fallows." He gestured toward the screen he had been studying. "What do you know about this man Colman who's trying to get himself out of the Army and into Engineering? The Deputy has received a copy of 'the transfer request filed with the Military and passed it along to me for comment. It seems that this Colman has given your name as a reference. What do you know about him?" The inclined chin and the narrowing of the Gothic eyebrows were asking silently why any self-respecting echelon-four engineering officer would associate with an infantry sergeant. "Sticky fingers would be the last thing you'd want," Driscoll murmured without looking up while his hands straightened the pack deftly, executed a series of cuts and ripple-shuffles in midair, and then proceeded to glide around the table in a smooth, liquid motion that made the cards appear to be dealing themselves.. moment and in the firm grip of the real.. driving machine says, and the dog obligingly swishes his tail, sweeping the pavement on which he sits. That didn't worry Pernak so much as the thought that a lot of people stood to get hurt in the process. Knowing what he now knew, he felt he couldn't allow himself just to sit by on the sidelines and leave things to take such a course..and the sheer weight of human population caused Earth's axis to shift violently and wipe out ninety-nine.This was a girlish merriment, sweet and musical, almost shy.
